Balan and Hashmi will also play the parents with great ease. Balan has already shown her versatility in Shaadi Ke Side Effects and Bobby Jasoos but Hashmi provides a whole new dimension. While the playboy of the two used to create a lot of trouble for Balan, he has evolved into an artist, says Suri. When Hashmi took over the role of Suri's lead in Bombay Velvet, Balan took it very badly as it was her dream role and she didn't want to work with anyone else. Suri, however, told her that Hashmi was the right choice and Balan finally accepted it after a long time. Hashmi was not ready to compromise on his vision though. He worked on his films, Beshak 2, Aashiqui 2 and Aashiqui 3, ensuring that they were exactly what he wanted them to be and not more. Hashmi says he is fortunate to get to play the lead in a film like Hamari Adhuri Kahani. From what we have seen of Hamari Adhuri Kahani, it seems to be a well-executed whole. Suri tries to do justice to the traditional fabric of the country by foregrounding real-life issues like the dowry tradition. Suri says, the film also acknowledges the bond between a husband and a wife, who share a long marriage though the husband is absent (Vidya has three children with her ex-husband Rajkumar Pandey). However, Hamari Adhuri Kahani takes a different, more personal slant. Suri did not start writing Hamari Adhuri Kahani till after 'Aashiqui 2.' When he did, the film didn't seem to have a clear beginning, middle and end. The film's title could be taken literally or in the sense of completion.
