On July 29, 2018, I wrote a post entitled "Why Chrome Won't Install Update for Lastest Version." I decided to install another update (version 45.0.2454.101) for my Chrome browser. No results. So, I had to revert back to Chrome version 45.0.2454.91. Here is the latest I could find on Google Chrome's update history page. That was the latest I could find for Chrome on the Mac. I had problems with the updates and reverted back to the latest as well. I am having the same problem. I am now using version 45
